Dear McGill:

Has the petition for a writ of error been filed in the Supreme Court of Florida as yet? I have been checking the files on our cases and am wondering exactly where we are in the Florida case.

If you will let me know when it is necessary to start work on the brief, I will be happy to do so as soon as I get time. The other states are anxiously watching Florida as an example of the first case in the deep south, so it is necessary to keep driving on that particular case.

I am enclosing a copy of a statement prepared for the teachers of Maryland which will give you an idea of the present status of the Maryland cases.

Yours very truly,

Thurgood Marshall
