Dear McGill:

I have re-drafted the first section of the proposed brief. I think that if you insert the enclosed six pages in lieu of the first two pages of the brief I sent you earlier in the case, we will have enough to make out a prima facie case. It might be necessary to tie the brief in closer with the petition, but I leave that to your judgment. I am sending this on to you, but will continue to work on the case and if I find anything else of interest, I will send it to you. In the meantime, please let me know whether or not you have enough material to get the brief into shape. I will be happy to do anything more that is necessary to get the case in proper shape.

Please let me know, if possible, the approximate date of argument on the case so that I can begin to make arrangements.

Yours very truly,

Thurgood Marshall
Assistant Special Counsel
