Dear Mr. Marshall:

Your wire was received and acted upon immediately
re Chesnut letter to Kaplan.

I am here enclosing copy of letter received this afternoon from Attorney McGill re the Gilbert case. Note particularly the marked sections. I am holding the record which he sent you, but will mail same to you upon your request.
I am not making reply to Attorney McGill, but rather expecting you to wire him. As to the form of the petition for certiorari which you asked me to follow in this case - your instructions are being carried out.

You will find enclosed also daily mail sheets.

All goes well here. Hope you and LAR are enjoying yourselves there in the archives. Best regards to you both.
Miss Cadet sends hello.

Sincerely yours,
